Van Lanschot Kempen has been named Real Estate Manager of the Year at the Nederlandse Pensioen Awards

Amsterdam/'s-Hertogenbosch, the Netherlands, 20 February 2026

Van Lanschot Kempen Investment Management won the award for Real Estate Manager of the Year at the Nederlandse Pensioen Awards. An expert jury selected the winners based on their outstanding performance, innovative ideas, and leading role in the Dutch pension sector.

Wilse Graveland, Head of Institutional Solutions at Van Lanschot Kempen: "We are very pleased with this recognition for our real estate solutions. This award highlights the strength of Van Lanschot Kempen's broad real estate expertise and the trust our clients place in our long-term approach. As fiduciary manager, we are also proud that the StiPP Pensioenfond's has been awarded the Dutch Pensions Innovation Award. StiPP has consciously chosen an ambitious investment approach, with broad diversification and innovative investments, where financial returns go hand in hand with social impact. This award is a wonderful compliment for our team and a reward for the path that we and our clients have embarked upon."

Van Lanschot Kempen offers a comprehensive real estate proposition for both institutional and private investors. Within Investment Management, Van Lanschot Kempen advises and manages real estate investments for pension schemes and insurers, often alongside or as part of a broader illiquid portfolio. In addition, Van Lanschot Kempen's private bank supports entrepreneurs and high-net-worth individuals with private market solutions, including real estate financing and strategic advice. This combination of institutional knowledge and private client services strengthens our expertise across the board.
