Van Lanschot Kempen recognised with two Euromoney Private Banking Awards 2026

Amsterdam/'s-Hertogenbosch, The Netherlands, 20 March 2026

At the annual Euromoney Private Banking Awards 2026 in London, Van Lanschot Kempen received two awards. Van Lanschot Kempen Private Banking was recognised as 'Best for Digital Solutions' in the Netherlands. In Belgium, Mercier Van Lanschot was named 'Best for HNW'.

These awards highlight Van Lanschot Kempen's focus on distinctive wealth management services, with personal attention for clients strengthened by digital innovation. For over twenty years, Euromoney's Private Banking Awards have recognised leading European private banks in various categories and aim to promote excellence within the sector.

Maarten Edixhoven, chair of the Management Board: "These awards are a great recognition of how we, as an independent and specialised wealth manager, serve our clients. They reflect that we are relevant to our clients at the moments in their lives that matter most to them. We invest in digitalisation and AI to ensure that our personal service is strengthened by technology. We are grateful for the trust our clients place in us and for the growth this brings. Above all, this recognition is a compliment to our colleagues, who work every day to strengthen relationships and deliver high-quality service to our clients."
