Van Lanschot Kempen nominates Saul van Beurden as Member of the Supervisory Board

Amsterdam/'s-Hertogenbosch, The Netherlands, 19 October 2026

Van Lanschot Kempen has nominated Saul van Beurden for appointment as a member of the Supervisory Board. In connection with this nomination, an Extraordinary General Meeting (EGM) will be held in 's-Hertogenbosch on 30 November 2026 at 3:00 pm. De Nederlandsche Bank has approved the proposed appointment.

Saul van Beurden has more than 30 years of experience in technology, operations, data and AI at major international financial institutions. He is currently Co-CEO of Consumer Banking & Lending and Head of AI at Wells Fargo & Co. He previously held various senior management positions at Wells Fargo and JPMorgan Chase.

Frans Blom, Chair of the Supervisory Board, said: "Saul combines in-depth knowledge of AI, technology and data with extensive experience as a senior executive at a range of international financial institutions. With his expertise in both identifying opportunities and managing data and technology risks, he will make an important contribution to Van Lanschot Kempen. We look forward to working with him."

The notice convening the EGM and the agenda with explanatory notes are available on the Van Lanschot Kempen website under General Meetings.
